

The Sweet Springs Band hope to soon be under the instruction of an able musician.

To The Memory of Daughter Rena Porter.

RESOLVED, by the Sulphur Springs Tabernacle that this obituary, in commendation of the life of Sister Rena Porter, be given to and published by the Editor of the Sedalia WEEKLY CONSERVATOR.

Rena Porter born in Sweet Springs, Mo. April 30, 1881—died June 28, 1903. She professed religion at the age of 13 yrs. during the time that Rev. Wm. Smith was pastor in Sweet Springs.

She lived a devoted Christian and was a useful member of the M. E. church of which she was a member and was secretary of the Sunday School, a faithful member and secretary of the International Order of Twelve; she so lived in the community as to demand its love and respect.

Her conversation during her illness was the future happiness of which she often spoke and sweet fields to her were beyond the swelling floods and she was waiting to take her place among the pure and blest, where the light of eternal peace and happiness reigns.

Rena was educated in Sweet Springs. As a student she was diligent and loved by her classmates; she was assistant teacher during the term that Miss Alice Holmes taught here.

She often expressed a desire to attend the District Conference although she was gradually passing into the home of eternal rest; and may we solve as to be anxious to attend our very important religious assemblies that we may be welcomed to the assembly of the church above where the King of Glory will ever reign, and we will be at rest from labor and at peace in that beautiful city of light.

May those who have survived her take up the work that she began and work upward and onward.

Mrs. Travis' club gave a progressive entertainment at Taylor Chapel Tuesday night.

Henceforth, now, and forever we have no material to loan.

Mr. Wm. Curd of George-town vicinity, who knows a good thing when he sees it, and appreciates effort to such an extent that he is ever energetic to its interests, came in Monday and gave us a name of a new scribe. Thanks to you brother Curd.

Mrs. Katie Smith returned from Nashville Tenn., last week accompanying her daughter, who is confined now to her home on East 3rd st. we hope for her speedy recovery.

C. M. English teaches all kind of brass instrument music. He hopes soon to enlarge his class from a few to many.

A drama club is being organized and promises to give us some of the funniest and finest of plays this winter watch for dates and prices.

The organization of social, sewing, reading, and other clubs seems to be at a stand still. Well they will "wake up" after a while.

Rev. Davis reports that he has treated a number of the sick, and that they are doing nicely.

The Deaver Foot-Ball Team of G. R. S. C. is getting down to good work under the care of Captain Williams, and promises to "wallop" some had this year.

If all of our subscribers were to treat us as brother Curd, it would not take us long to collect the sentiment of the Central Mo. people to one common end—the development of our own talent to usefulness.

A community is judged somewhat by the practical sympathy it has for its own helpless. What steps are taken by our community to care for its widows orphans or destitute?

Club number 13 of the M. E. church better known as the Invincible 13 will on next Thursday eve give a superb entertainment in connection with club number 7, at Sons and Daughters of Charity hall.

Among the many progressive clubs of the church, we are pleased to mention the success of Mrs. Dinsmoor's number 12 which cleared $8.00 by their Trolley ride last Monday week.

Taylor's Chapel adopts resolutions commendatory to Prof. P. T. Bowles, recently called to the Principalship of the Goliad, Tex. Public school.

Whereas, this church and community has had the fellowship of Prof. P. T. Bowles, A. B. during the past seven years of his stay in Sedalia, and,

Whereas his fellowship and association with us has added, greatly, to the moral and religious advancement of our literary and social life, and,

Whereas, he has been called to another field of labor, Therefore he is resolved.

By the Pastor, Officers, Laity, and communicants of Taylor's Chapel, that we express our regrets at his severance from us, thru these resolutions.

1st.—We do, and have appreciated his activity in our various church enterprises.

2nd.—That, tho, we regret much to lose his helpful association, yet we cheerfully surrender him to the good people of Texas. And that we bespeak for him, as being a cultured, christian gentleman, whose capacity and capabilities fits him to be a power of good to those with whom he has been called to labor.

Unanimously adopted, Oct., 18, 1903.

death. He leaves a wife and many relatives to mourn his demise. He was a member of the G. C. Cornet Band, which showed marked respect for him by furnishing music for his funeral procession and services. Rev. Alexander conducted a most eloquent and impressive service over the remain, after which the band escorted the body to the Mo. P. station where it was prepared for shipment to Versailles, Mo., and interred in its last resting place Monday afternoon. "When death's damp had clouded his brow he exclaimed I am walking with Jesus."
